Leipzig, Germany, 28 to 30 May 2021

Announcement

1. Background

Women's choirs from all over the world are invited to meet in Leipzig, the world-class music city, to make music together and to meet each other.

Leipzig is not only the place of work of composers such as Bach, Mendelssohn Bartholdy and Grieg, but also the birthplace and workplace of Clara Schumann. On this occasion, there is an invitation to women in Germany and abroad to come together in Leipzig in the spirit of Clara Schumann.

2. Participation

The festival is open to women's choirs of all styles and sizes. It is not a competition. Participation in all activities is optional and must be confirmed upon application.

3. Program

The following events are offered:

Friday, 28 May 2021:	Reception at the New City Hall Encounter concerts
Saturday, 29 May 2021:	Performances in the city centre of Leipzig - Passagensingen Barcamp Workshops Great Joint Concert
Sunday, 30 May 2021:	Performances in Leipzig churches

4. Workshops

The workshops are conducted according to the bar camp method, which means that the participating choirs themselves decide on the content by presenting methods and pieces of their choral work to each other. Ideally, two choirs organize a workshop together.

5. Organizer:

The Leipzig Choral Association is the umbrella organization of over 90 choirs from Leipzig and the surrounding area. As a service provider of his affiliated choirs, he works voluntarily and without profit interest.
